WELCOME

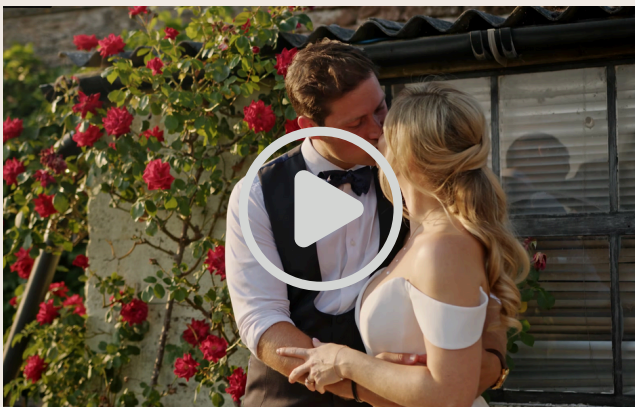

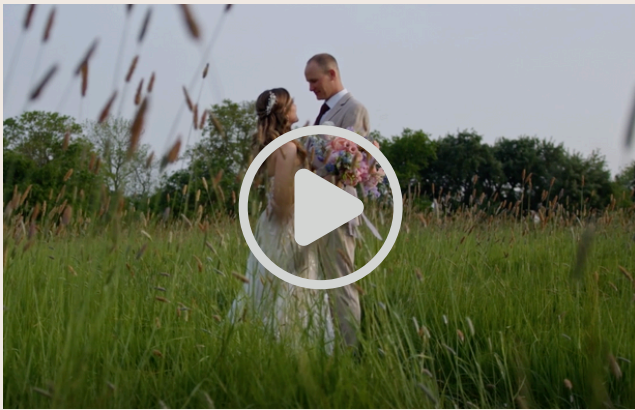

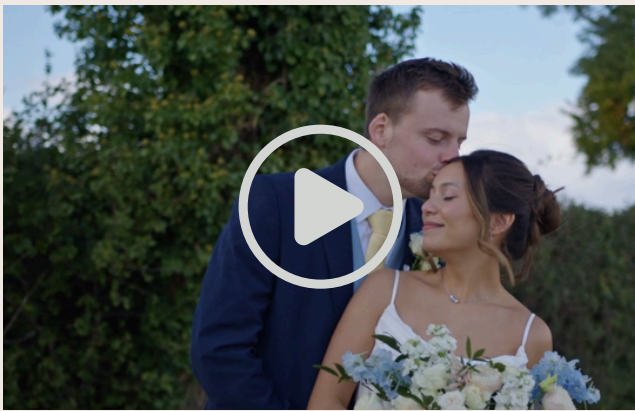

I take a cinematic, storytelling approach to wedding videography, blending into the background while capturing the real emotions, laughter, and love that make your day uniquely yours. Every couple has a story, and I'm here to preserve it in a way that feels true to you.

Hi, I'm James, and I'm passionate about capturing wedding days in the most beautiful, natural, and authentic way possible. I know how special this moment is and how overwhelming it can feel, which is why my goal is to help you feel comfortable and enjoy every second of your day.

At the end of the day, my job is simple: to create a wedding film that feels real, timeless, and meaningful to you. No stiff poses or forced moments just genuine memories you'll want to relive again and again.

YOUR FILMS

SOME KIND WORDS

I cannot express how amazing James was. Then the videos ... AMAZING!! Captures the day perfectly to a high quality. All the family and friends have said how amazing they are. I highly recommend this guy! Even went out his way to give us an extra bit of video I asked for after he had sent us the finished product. Thank you so much James !!

We looked at various videographers work and we found a lot to be either homemade or great footage but not in any kind of order so didn't really make a good story. We came across James and his work was excellent. We got this arranged and we chatted and we knew he was the guy for us! Highly highly recommend James

James is a fantastic guy and we are so happy we had him capture our special day! From planning up until the big day the communication was spot on and we felt so reassured we had the best videographer for our wedding. He went above and beyond and created the most magical videos for us which we can treasure forever!! 10/10 would recommend him!
